The latest update of Google Chrome browser is preventing viewing of Crystal Reports viewer. Chrome is gradually deprecating and droping support for NPAPI plugins including Java, Silverlight, and Unity.

For details, please read:

 Chrome to Drop Support for NPAPI Plugins Including Java, Silverlight, and Unity
Chrome starts pushing Java off the Web by disabling plugins

To enable NPAPI in Chrome, open the browser and enter

chrome://flags/#enable-npapi

in the URL and press Enter. This will bring you to the following section.

Enable NPAPI Mac, Windows Enables the use of NPAPI plugins. #enable-npapi Enable Click on Enable and restart Chrome.
